How to Use This Journal

This journal is your 12-week structured reflection practice for Leadership Energy Audit development. Consistent weekly reflection is the single most powerful habit for sustainable leadership growth.

The leader who reflects consistently for 12 weeks will develop more than the leader who attends 12 workshops.

Journal Guidelines

Complete one entry every week — ideally on the same day at the same time.
Set aside 15-20 minutes of uninterrupted time for each entry.
Be specific and honest. Vague reflection produces vague growth.
Review your previous entry before starting a new one to track patterns.
Share selected entries with your manager or coach to deepen accountability.
